Legislator Monica R. Martinez Meets with the Christian Pastors of the Community

On Thursday, January 9, 2014, Legislator Monica R. Martinez attended the first Pastor's Association of Long Island (APLI) meeting of the New Year. The APLI meeting, chaired by Pastor Marvin Lozano, was held at Iglesia Elim located at 155 Alkier Street in Brentwood New York.

Religious leaders and local business groups gathered to discuss the economic, civil and social developments of the Latino community. This meeting resulted in the development of an ambitious agenda for APLI in 2014. They will focus on empowering the Latino Community by involving the Christian faith as a symbol of unity and a guide for growth.
